Artémis, the holding company of the Pinault family, announces the successful placement of its EUR 500 million bonds exchangeable for Puma SE shares

Paris, June 18, 2020 – Artémis (“Artémis” or the “Guarantor”), through its fully-owned special purpose vehicle Selena (“Selena” or the “Issuer”), announces today the successful placement of senior unsecured zero-coupon bonds due 2025 for an aggregate nominal amount of €500 million (the “Bonds”), guaranteed by Artémis and which will be exchangeable for Puma SE (“Puma”) shares (the “Shares”) at an exchange premium set at 36% above the Share reference price determined in respect of the offering of the Bonds (the “Bonds Issue”) as further described below.

The holders of the Bonds will benefit from an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee by Artémis in respect of the Issuer’s payment obligations under the Bonds.

The Guarantor will also undertake to transfer or otherwise make available to the Issuer, when necessary, the required number of Shares to be delivered under the Bonds pursuant to their terms and conditions.

The Bonds will be issued at a principal amount of €100,000 per Bond and will not bear interest. The Bonds will be issued at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount corresponding to an annual yield to maturity equal to -0.20%.

The Bonds will have a maturity of 5 years (except in case of early redemption) and will be redeemed at their principal amount at maturity, subject to the Issuer’s option to deliver existing ordinary Shares and, as the case may be, an additional amount in cash.

The initial exchange price of the Bonds is equal to EUR 91.89, representing a 36% premium to the reference price, being the Volume Weighted Average Price of a Share on the XETRA stock exchange between launch and pricing (EUR 67.56).

The initial exchange ratio of the Bonds corresponds to the principal amount divided by the initial exchange price, i.e. 1,088.2577 Shares per Bond. The holders of the Bonds may exercise their exchange rights at any time from the 41st calendar day following the issue date until the 19th business day before the maturity date of the Bonds or, in the event of early redemption at the option of the Issuer, until the 19th business day before the relevant redemption date. Upon exchange, the Issuer will have the flexibility to settle in cash, deliver Shares or a combination thereof. The exchange price will be subject to customary adjustments pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Bonds.

Under certain conditions, the Bonds may be redeemed prior to maturity at the Issuer’s option. In particular, the Bonds may be redeemed early at the Issuer’s option as from 3 years following the issue date if the arithmetic average of the product of a Share’s Volume Weighted Average Price (as defined in the terms & conditions of the Bonds) and the then prevailing exchange ratio (over a 20-trading day period chosen by the Issuer from among the 40 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the publication of the early redemption notice) exceeds 130% of the principal amount of the Bonds.

Not for distribution, directly or indirectly, to U.S. Persons or in the United States, South Africa, Australia, Canada or Japan, or any other jurisdiction in which it would be unlawful to do so.

The Bonds were offered by way of an offer in France and outside of France (except in the United States of America, Canada, Australia, South Africa and Japan) solely to qualified investors (as defined in point (e) of article 2 of the Prospectus Regulation (EU) 2017/1129), executed through an accelerated bookbuilding process.

Settlement and delivery of the Bonds is expected to take place on June 25, 2020. An application will be made for the Bonds to be admitted to trading on the open market (Euronext Access™) of Euronext Paris within 30 days following the issue date.

The net proceeds of the Bonds Issue will be used for general corporate purposes.

Following the Bonds Issue (and assuming exchange in full of the Bonds), Artémis will retain a stake of approximately 25% in Puma's share capital and remain a significant shareholder of Puma.

Selena, Artémis and Kering have each agreed to a 90-day lock-up for their remaining Shares, subject to certain usual exceptions or waiver by the Joint Global Coordinators (as defined below).

BNP Paribas, Crédit Agricole CIB and Goldman Sachs International acted as joint global coordinators and joint bookrunners (the "Joint Global Coordinators") of the Bonds Issue, together with Société Générale acting as joint bookrunner. CM-CIC, HSBC France and Natixis acted as co-bookrunners.

Rothschild & Co acted as financial advisor to Artémis in relation to the Bonds Issue.

Groupe Artémis is composed of companies with a wide range of business activities and a strong international presence. The net financial debt within the perimeter constituted by Artémis and its direct subsidiaries amounted to approximately €4.7bn as of December 31, 2019 and approximately €4.6bn as of May 31, 2020.

Further information on Selena and Artémis is available on Issuer's website.
